

people around me". I have to translate it all into love through prayer, she goes on to say I've been through so much and it hurts when you've done all you can and have given it your 100% to know that all people constantly want to do is take, take, take, lie and steal! But, for me everything is spiritual so I just continue to trust in God, and one day at a time he has brought me through it all victoriously.

As she launched her fragrance line named after her new album "PS I Love You" and gave away free mixtape cd for mother's day weekend, Lil Mo is putting all this into perspective with that righteous spirit.

ITS: Hey Mo, I was just about to have to reschedule girl what you up to?

Lil Mo: I know, I'm sitting here up under this dryer and was trying to wait for my hair to finish drying before I called, I didn't want the noise from the dryer interrupting us; but, I'm so good, God is good.

ITS: What are you getting ready for? Sounds like you got something important to attend.

Lil Mo: Yes, I do, I'm just so excited about this weekend we will be doing a few events to promote my new fragrance line for Mother's Day weekend. The line is called "PS I Love Me" which I have personally worked with the chemist to create the scents. I didn't want to represent something that I wouldn't wear myself, so I made sure the scents are all light and fresh. I also wanted to make sure the prices stay affordable. We have added other extensions of the line "Loving, Heaven, and are going to follow up with a men's addition for Father's Day called "PS I Love Him".

ITS: What was your first project you worked on that made you say OMG! I've made it?

Lil Mo: It was the Missy Elliott's Hot Boy's song. I have been so blessed and that sister is truly amazing. She put me on right away without asking for my blood and soul. She gave me my big break and opportunity. You know this industry is really funny and it's only the grace of God that creates that type of situation for me.

ITS: How do you juggle marriage, family, and career?

Lil Mo: My family, we are all so close and they have my back tremendously, but for the most part my kids are usually always with me. Unless I have something really big on the calendar they are taking it all in. My husband and seem very different I mean who would ever see an R&B singer with my 33 tattoo's together with gospel producer? But, we are compatible in so many ways, my husband is dope, we have a wonderful marriage.

ITS: Are you still doing the radio show in Philly? How is that?

Lil Mo: Yes I am, In fact you can catch the show on my website www.thelilmoshow.com. We have so much fun and they show me so much Love.

ITS: Do any of your children sing?

Lil Mo: Yes as a matter of fact they all do. I may even put together a Mo squad or something. My son has a perfect pitch and if I would invest in anyone it would be my children. I strongly support that, I think Wil and Jada are great parent managers, the Jackson's, Mrs. Norwood, the Knowles you know I can see us doing that, so watch out!

ITS: If you can change anything that happened to you and your career what would it be?

Lil Mo: I would be more patient. I was always like I got to drop this song now; my fans want and need to hear me.
